Government Notice

OFFICE OF THE PRIME MINISTER

No. 224

1994

PROMULGATION OF ACT OF PARLIAMENT

The following Act which has been passed by the Parliament and signed by the President in terms of the Namibian Constitution is hereby published in terms of Article 56 of that Constitution.

No. 30 of 1994: Import and Export Control Act, 1994.

IMPORT AND EXPORT CONTROL
ACT, 1994*ACT

To provide for import and export control and for matters incidental thereto.

(Signed by the President on 16 November 1994)

BE IT ENACTED by the Parliament of the Republic of Namibia, as follows:-

Definitions

1. In this Act, unless the context otherwise indicates -

“export” means to take out or cause to be taken out of Namibia, whether in the course of trade or otherwise;

“import” means to bring or cause to be brought into Namibia, whether in the course of trade or otherwise;

“Minister” means the Minister of Trade and Industry.

Powers of Minister in relation to import and export of goods.

2. (1) The Minister may, whenever it is necessary or expedient in the public interest, by notice in the Gazette prohibit -

(a) the import into or the export from Namibia; or

(b) the import into or the export from Namibia, except under the authority of and in accordance with the conditions stated in a permit issued by the Minister or by a person authorised by him or her,

of any goods of a class or kind specified in such notice or of any goods other than goods of a class or kind specified in such notice.

IMPORT AND EXPORT CONTROL
ACT, 1994

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1) goods may be classified also according to the source or origin or the intermediate or final destination thereof or according to the channels along which or manner in which they are imported or exported or according to the purposes for which they are intended to be used.

(3) A permit issued under subsection (1) may prescribe the quantity or value of goods which may be imported or exported thereunder, the price at which, the period within which, the port through or from which, the country or territory from or to which and the manner in which the goods may be imported or exported, and such other conditions as the Minister may direct, including any condition relating to the possession, ownership or disposal of goods after the import thereof or to the use to which they may be put.

(4) The Minister or any person authorized by him or her, may cancel, amend or suspend any permit issued under subsection (1), if the Minister is satisfied that any condition of the permit has not been complied with, or if the holder of the permit has been convicted of an offence under this Act, or if it is necessary or expedient in the public interest.

(5) The Minister may by like notice withdraw or amend any notice issued under subsection (1).

Furnishing of information to Minister

3. The Minister or any person authorized by him or her, may in writing direct any person who imports, exports or manufactures any goods or trades in any goods or in the course of his or her business or trade handles or has under his or her control any goods, to furnish the Minister within a period specified in the direction with any information at his or her disposal in relation to the import, export, manufacture, supply or storage of the goods concerned.

Offences and penalties.

4. (1) Any person who -

- (a) imports or exports any goods in contravention of a provision of a notice issued under section 2;
- (b) fails to comply with a condition stated in a permit issued under section 2;
- (c) fails to comply with a directive made under section 3; or

IMPORT AND EXPORT CONTROL
ACT, 1994

(d) furnishes any false information in complying with such an order, shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding N$20 000 or imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years or to both such fine and such imprisonment and to a further fine not exceeding three times the commercial value of the goods, if any, in respect of which the offence was committed.

(2) The court convicting any person of importing or exporting or attempting to import or export any goods in contravention of a provision of a notice issued under section 2, or of failing to comply with a condition stated in a permit issued under that section, may declare the goods to be forfeited to the State.

(3) A declaration made under paragraph (a) shall not affect any rights which any person other than the convicted person may have to the goods but if such other person is the owner of the goods, such a declaration shall be binding upon such owner unless it is proved that the owner did not know that the goods were being dealt with in contravention of such a provision or condition.

(4) The provisions of subsections (4) and (5) of section 35 of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977 (Act 51 of 1977), shall mutatis mutandis apply to any forfeiture under subsection (2).

Jurisdiction of magistrate's court

5. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other law contained, a magistrate's court shall have jurisdiction to impose any penalty prescribed by this Act.

Repeal of Act 45 of 1963

6. (1) The Import and Export Control Act, 1963 (Act 45 of 1963), is hereby repealed.

(2) Anything done, or deemed to have been done, under the provisions of the said Act, shall be deemed to have been done under the corresponding provisions of this Act.

Short title

7. This Act shall be called the Import and Export Control Act, 1994.
