CHAPTER 22.

THE WEAPONRY FUND

The Weaponry Fund shall be a State institution at the Government, the main task of which shall be to procure weapons, military hardware, ammunition and explosives for the national defence system and state institutions. The Weaponry Fund shall manufacture and repair the armaments, ammunition and explosives required by the armed forces and other state institutions at the state enterprises assigned to its jurisdiction, or commission and supervise, in an established procedure, their manufacture or repairs at other enterprises. The Weaponry Fund shall also discharge the functions of a governmental agency in charge of procuring foreign armament. The activities of the Weaponry Fund shall be regulated by laws.
