

Government Regulation No. 185/2000 Coll., of June 21, 2000

determining products that can be imported to the Czech Republic or exported from the Czech Republic only on the base of a licence in accordance with Act No. 62/2000 Coll., on Some Measures in the Export or Import of Products and on the Licensing Procedures and on the Change of Some Acts, as amended by Government Regulation No.446/2000 Coll., and Government Regulation No.:495/2000 Coll.

Pursuant to §76 of Act No.:62/2000 Coll., on Some Measures in the Export or Import of Products and on the Licensing Procedures and on the Change of Some Acts, (hereinafter referred to as the "Act") the Government determine:

§1

(1) The lists of products which can be imported to the Czech Republic or exported from the Czech Republic only on presentation of a licence pursuant to the Act are specified as follows:

- a) For the import,
  - 1) On the base of automatic licence in Annex 1 of this Regulation,
  - 2) On the base of non-automatic licence in Annex 3 of this Regulation,
- b) For the export,
  - 1) On the base of automatic licence in Annex 2 of this Regulation,
  - 2) On the base of non-automatic licence in Annex 4 of this Regulation
- c) For the import or export on the base of security licence in Annex 5 of this Regulation.

(2) Annexes from 1 to 5 of this Regulation contains also conditions upon which the import or export of products can be realised, requirements for licence application and Annexes 6 and 7 contains the samples of application form.

(3) The original of licence shall be presented to the customs office.

§2

The import licences for products, originating from the Slovak Republic contained in Parts from I to VI of Annex 1 and licences for the export of products to the Slovak Republic, contained in Parts from I to VI of Annex 2 are not required until December 31, 2000.

§3

This Regulation shall enter into force on July 1, 2000.